

Steve Madewell Music

Highlights/Quotes/Links

"Steve's been called a "born storyteller." His sound has been described as "a picturesque portfolio of songcraft in the vein of Livingston Taylor and Richard Shindell" (Cool Cleveland)

2022-23 Radio Appearances

Music My Mother Would Not Like: Bruce Swan

Folk Music Notebook: Ron Olson

Philly Folk Scene: Jan Alba & Rusty Crowell

Hootenanny Cafe: Jon Stein

Video Links:

Folknet: www.youtube.com/watch?v=uleyYGw7728

Folk Music Notebook: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jG79u23piZE&t=44s>

Lake Erie Folk Festival: with John Barile: <https://youtu.be/tk76D9cgeSU>

Audio Links:

<https://madewellmusic.com/songs>

And all major streaming platforms

Coffeyville, Kansas Humanities Program: return presenter, presentation overview:
<https://www.coffeyville.edu/visitors/humanities-project/news/1733390/steve-madewell>

Jon Stein <https://bellbuckleradio.com/hootenannycafe.html>

"Steve Madewell sent me a song for the Songwriter Showcase segment of my show (The Hootenanny Cafe). Once I heard that song, I wanted to hear more. The more I heard, the more I wanted to hear. Steve is an awesome singer songwriter."

"rooted in the late '60s, early-70s generation of folk-pop crossover musicians such as Bob Dylan, James Taylor, and Don McLean" (Calm Cafe)

Ron Olson <https://folkmusicnotebook.com>

"What can I say about Hometown Blues... I simply love the album!"

Renee Obringer

"I just saw your show in Greenville, Ohio. You are an awesome performer. Your songs held multiple messages for and made me really "think" about things in life and the world around me."

Contact/Booking

For additional information, press and promotional material visit <http://madewellmusic.com>
or contact: steve@madewellmusic.com
440.479.3062

